

Leave of Absence Policy

Document ID: POL-HR-010

Effective Date: January 1, 2025

Last Reviewed: September 1, 2025

Owner: Human Resources & Legal

1. Overview

Acme Corp provides various types of leave to eligible employees in accordance with federal and applicable state laws, and in support of employee well-being. This policy covers medical leave, family leave, military leave, personal leave, and bereavement leave.

2. Family and Medical Leave (FMLA)

Employees who have worked at Acme Corp for at least 12 months and logged at least 1,250 hours in the past 12 months are eligible for up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave per year under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) for the following reasons:

- Birth, adoption, or foster placement of a child.
- Serious health condition of the employee.
- Serious health condition of a spouse, child, or parent.
- Qualifying exigency related to a family member's military service.

2.1 Notice Requirements

When leave is foreseeable, employees must provide at least 30 days' advance notice. When leave is unforeseeable, employees must notify HR as soon as practicable (typically within 1–2 business days).

2.2 Interaction with PTO

Acme Corp requires employees to use any accrued PTO concurrently with unpaid FMLA leave. Using PTO does not extend the 12-week FMLA entitlement.

3. Parental Leave

Separate from FMLA, Acme Corp provides paid parental leave to eligible employees (employed for at least 6 months):

Caregiver Role	Paid Leave Duration
Primary caregiver (birth, adoption, foster)	12 weeks fully paid
Secondary caregiver	4 weeks fully paid

4. Military Leave

Acme Corp complies with the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA). Employees called to active duty or reserve training are entitled to unpaid leave for the duration of their service. Acme Corp will supplement military pay up to the employee's regular base salary for up to 30 days per year.

5. Personal Leave

Employees who have exhausted all PTO and do not qualify for FMLA may request an unpaid personal leave of absence of up to 4 weeks with manager and HR approval. Personal leave is not guaranteed and is granted at the company's discretion based on business need.

6. Bereavement Leave

Relationship	Paid Bereavement Days
Spouse, domestic partner, child	5 days
Parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild	3 days
In-law (parent, sibling)	2 days
Other close relation / chosen family	1 day (manager discretion)

Additional unpaid bereavement time may be approved by the manager in extenuating circumstances. Employees may also use PTO to supplement bereavement leave.

7. Requesting Leave

- Notify your manager as soon as you are aware of the need for leave.
- Submit a leave request in Workday (Time Off > Leave of Absence).
- HR will send the appropriate paperwork within 2 business days.
- For FMLA: provide medical certification from a healthcare provider within 15 calendar days.
- HR will confirm leave approval, start date, and return-to-work date in writing.

8. Return to Work

Employees returning from FMLA leave are entitled to return to the same or an equivalent position. Employees returning from personal leave are entitled to the same position only if it has not been eliminated due to business restructuring during the leave period. A fitness-for-duty certification may be required before returning from medical leave.
